Steve,

Thank you! I must say that Connie is at the heart of the program. Nothing comes from me that she hasn't seen, and worked on too. And it is her credibility and relationships that makes everything happen.

And thank you for being kind enough to let me see some of the fruits of our labor. And I will never be the writer you are.

After we send out these budget updates, I always look to see what kind of response we get. Even though the one today was really long (my fault; I kept adding stuff), and the news is always sobering, you got immediate positive response. Here are just two representative ones. I thought you would find it gratifying to see them. Have a great weekend.

(I'm sending it to Jim, too, because I'm not sure he knows how appreciate we are, and how appreciative the employees are to get all the information in a readable form.)

Mrs. Elia,

I'm glad you are at the helm. Thanks for taking the time to keep us so well informed. I think teachers have never understood the finances of such a large district. It is nice to think that you respect us enough to keep us in the loop.
Much thanks and keep up the good work.

Dear Mrs. Elia,

I simply wish to thank you for your regular communication with your staff through the simple usage of a pop-up message. I appreciate the straight forward manner in which you let us know how issues are being perceived at the highest levels and what we might anticipate as time goes by. You have my best wishes and prayers.

Sincerely,
